To whom it may concern,

Jamee Campbell was one of my preferred subcontractors at Phoenix Entertainment from 2012-2014. She performed a range of entertainment roles with the utmost professionalism, and I never hesitated for a moment to book her to represent our company.

The nature of our business requires performers who are not only exceptionally skilled, experienced and able to follow a client's brief, but also to have the ability to be flexible and deal with challenges in a positive way. Jamee excelled in all ways, and her greatest asset is her attitude. Nothing is too much trouble, and regardless of what is thrown at her, she is never phased in the least. She approaches everything with a smile and positive determination that makes working alongside her an absolute pleasure.

Her professionalism in terms of presentation, punctuality and her manor with clients and guests is impeccable, and her ability to work within a team environment regardless of who she had to work with was second to none!

I was disappointed when her life direction took her away from us in Brisbane, as I treasured her as one of my best performers. I would recommend her for any position she aspires to, and encourage you to consider her for any role in your business!

Yours Sincerely
